

Rodel Foundation of Delaware's International Advisory Group

Member	Biography
Joanne Weiss, Chair (USA)	Previously Chief of Staff to Secretary Arne Duncan at the U.S. Department of Education, directed Race to The Top grant competition ; former Partner and Chief Operating Officer at NewSchools Venture Fund; CEO and founder of high tech and education technology companies.
Jim Dueck (Canada)	Former Assistant Deputy Minister of Education, Alberta, Canada; architect of the province's assessment, accountability, and reporting system.
Ben Jensen (Australia)	CEO of Learning First; former Director of the School Education Program at the Grattan Institute in Australia; an educator/researcher whose practical and practice-oriented research covers improving school and teacher effectiveness, measuring school performance, and cost-effectiveness ; is knowledgeable about Asian education systems as well as Australia and New Zealand.
Lee Sing Kong (Singapore)	Director of Singapore's National Institute for Education; an expert in human capital in education (preparation, selection, development), and in defining and teaching 21st century skills/frameworks .
Ursula Renold (Switzerland)	Former director of the Swiss Federal Office for Professional Education and Technology; now head of the KOF Swiss Economic Institute at the ETH Zurich, where she will be responsible for developing the field of "education systems;" an expert in the nexus between education, employment, and vocational training systems .
Andreas Schleicher (Germany/OECD countries)	Head of Division and Special Advisor on Education Policy to the Secretary General, Indicators and Analysis Division, Directorate for Education, Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD); expert on PISA and the study of comparative international education policy and economic competitiveness .